PASTURE—Commencing April 15, Gust Lunborg will furnish good pasture for stock by the head. 3 miles west of Monroe.

Two views—Thursday afternoon we met James McElroy of Rensselaer and he was in the dumps. Thought the weather too hot, wheat growing so fast it would fall down so badly that it could not be harvested. Ten minutes later we met W. H. Elliott, Jr. and his salutation was: Isn't this glorious? I finished putting in 50 acres of oats last night and the warm rain on it was just the thing. So you see, farmers as well as Doctors do not always agree.

Leo Bell has bought a fine colt jack of G. W. Soakup at Lentner.

W. W. Handley has sold a pair of horses to A. A. Wiseman.

Dr. W. B. A. McNutt has sold his dark bay saddle horse to A. A. Wiseman for $300. Good price, but then it was a good horse.

Uncle Tom E'zea was in fine fettle Friday. He was pleased with the world because: My oats are fine, fruit trees full of bloom and I never saw every thing look better.

J. B. Gray of Gray and Son told us Friday: We have 90 acres of wheat and have been pasturing it for some time. Oh my, but the grass is fine. Some people have already turned out their stock on it.

Charles F. Straub has sold 29 head of nice fat hives to Hawkins and Melson.

Charlie Sharp has bought a good sorrell saddle horse from E. Miller at Lakenan.

One of the freakiest of freak eggs we ever heard of is the one found by Mrs. Peter Young among her flock of black and white Langshans one day last week. The egg was larger than a goose egg. Mrs. Young concluded that it contained a double yolk. Upon breaking it open what was her surprise to find beside the usual yolk and white, another perfect egg with shell. In other words, within the outside egg, if you please were two other eggs, one with a shell and the other without.—Vandalla Mail.

J. O. Cozad has broken sod for 50 acres of corn.

Jack Crawford has 40 acres of fine wheat, put in 40 acres of oats and is preparing to put in 125 acres of corn.

We have at the head of our White Plymouths a fine cockerel bought from U. R. Fisher whose motto is: "The Best in the World" and the premiums he captures prove him to raise that kind. Will sell eggs at $1.00 for 15.—W. J. Rouse.

Thos. E. Fitzpatrick has sold the Martin Pike 80 acres to Charles Frederick. And the Mrs. Sullivan residence on East First Street to Mrs. Martin Pike. Consideration in both deals, private.

Bert Loomis, of Hannibal has a 10 months old colt Silver Coin, one of the Silver Graton stock, that he has brought to the fair grounds. The dam for the season and the colt to be handled by Mr. Nickel with the prodigy Silver Charm. The colts are half brothers.

Isaac N. Melson has bought 8 head of beeves from Ben Parson and sent 12 head to the Bluff City market Monday.

The Democrat has gotten out bills this week for James Smith's fancy saddle Stallion Plutarch Rose Jr. and his two jacks Charcoal and Black Bart. See bills for pedigrees. It is nice stock.

Have you seen the pretty bills gotten out by the DEMOCRAT for Lee Dowell. Read them for they describe his fine stallion, Dr. Cave and two jacks, Royal Giant and Col. Simms. It is an extra nice bunch of stock.

Buckman Bros shipped 5 cars of extra fine beef cattle Sunday morning. They showed plainly that they had spent the winter with their heads in a well filled corn crib.

A green bug is said to be slaying the Kansas and Oklahoma wheat fields. The damage is so great in some sections that the farmers are plowing up the wheat to plant corn.

John L. Owen sent 12 beeves to Hannibal, Monday and sold 2 to Bricker & Spiker.

Hayden & Yates have bought horses of Pat Sullivan 1, Frank Garner 2, Mr. Wichman 1, Mr. James 1, C. Bush, Mr. Teed 1, E. Buckman 1, Sam Miller 1, Jno. Dulaney, James Smith 1, Rafe Yates 1 and have sold horses to J. T. Brown 2, D. D. Melson 2, Proctor & Son 1, Buckman & Mudd 1, L. C. Shaw 3 and J. G. Fuqua 2.

THE CITY

Election Was Dead Quiet Strangers Would Not Have Known

A city and school election in this man's town does not even make a ripple on the the surface of the body politic.
